Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

 Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

For you if you are filing this bankruptcy without an attorney

If you are represented by an attorney, you do not need to file this page. The law allows you, as an individual, to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, but you should understand that many people find it extremely difficult to represent themselves successfully. Because bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences, you are strongly urged to hire a qualified attorney.

To be successful, you must correctly file and handle your bankruptcy case. The rules are very technical, and a mistake or inaction may affect your rights. For example, your case may be dismissed because you did not file a required document, pay a fee on time, attend a meeting or hearing, or cooperate with the court, case trustee, U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or audit firm if your case is selected for audit. If that happens, you could lose your right to file another case, or you may lose protections, including the benefit of the automatic stay.

You must list all your property and debts in the schedules that you are required to file with the court. Even if you plan to pay a particular debt outside of your bankruptcy, you must list that debt in your schedules. If you do not list a debt, the debt may not be discharged. If you do not list property or properly claim it as exempt, you may not be able to keep the property. The judge can also deny you a discharge of all your debts if you do something dishonest in your bankruptcy case, such as destroying or hiding property, falsifying records, or lying. Individual bankruptcy cases are randomly audited to determine if debtors have been accurate, truthful, and complete. Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned.

If you decide to file without an attorney, the court expects you to follow the rules as if you had hired an attorney. The court will not treat you differently because you are filing for yourself. To be successful, you must be familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the local rules of the court in which your case is filed. You must also be familiar with any state exemption laws that apply.

Brian,

I am responding to your email. I had to locate old files that were in storage. Had I known you were going to set conditions for repayment of the draw money we offered you while you were incarcerated, nothing would have been provided. You assured me you had the funds in bitcoin and that you were "good for the money". We provided the total draw believing it would be repaid in full, without dispute.

We agree the amount owed by you for the draws received while you were incarcerated is $7,000.00 In regards to commissions resulting from obtaining signatures for a potential contract, 30 percent would be our agreed rate, and that is being very generous under the circumstances.

In addition to the draw reimbursement, money is also due for the 4 proposals you completed in Solo. We are charged $25 for each proposal so an additional $100 is required. In addition to the above mentioned, You also brought on 2 potential salesmen who accumulated $300 in draws which were never repaid. As you were responsible for their obligations, namely the funds would have been charged to other jobs you may have brought in, this money will be applied to you at this time.

I was informed by Kelly that he also loaned you some money following your release. He said he gave you $100 plus $20 in change to help you with laundry. Kelly also reports that you returned his vehicle with damage sustained on the left rear quarter panel. I do not have the estimate for the damage caused while the vehicle was in your care, custody and control but I am sure Kelly will provide that very shortly and that will be expected to be paid by you.

Since you referred to the work prior to your incarnation which you would like to settle up, I am providing the following.

Perhaps you will recall the one solar roof we completed, without any payment on your assurance that a check/payment would be received. AQHI funded the roof in its entirety, labor, material and Eagleview cost but no funds were ever received. The amount owed by you for that project is $7,634.54 for actual expenses, pluss lost O&P. Be assured that interest is being considered in the balance due for the length of time in which the job has been uncollected, though not included in this communication. The job summary is outlined below under William McDowell.
